Vidunder (Sweden)

Vidunder is a bluesy rock band with a touch of garage, influenced by the music from the 60's and the 70's. The band teamed up with Crusher Records and released their self-titled debut album in May 2013; an album praised by numerous major magazines, press and fans. After several tours over Europe it's definitely about time... A new killer album is coming up!

Clockwork Psycho (Slovenia)

Clockwork Psycho is the first Slovenian female fronted psychobilly band from capital city Ljubljana. The trio was formed in 2011 when former members of other punk, oi and metal bands from Ljubljana came together in a desire to play psychobilly on their own way.

From the early beginnings in 2003 they were strongly influenced by the bands of the nineties stoner rock and grunge scenes. Later they developed their own sound and they successfully blended in blues rock, funk rock elements, as well as metal heaviness to their more powerful tunes with occasional trips to new wave and punk rock.
